Summer Fun!

Summer for many Mira Costa students was spent doing things they couldn't do during school. Some students had jobs and worked everyday, while others went to the beach and worked on their tans. Many utilized their time doing activities such as surfing or rollerskating. "The waves were really good this summer," commented Richard Sundeen, who found time in his busy schedule to surf everyday. The various volleyball tournaments and surfing competitions held throughout the summer proved to be very popular among Mira Costa students. As usual, the annual Surf Festival and Manhattan Open added excitement to the beach

community

While some students were busy making money, others were busy spending it. They crowded the malls and restaurants of the South Bay. Others decided to travel and spend money. Many enjoyed trips to Europe and the Orient, while still others traveled to such hot spots as Hawaii, Catalina, and Mexico. Although those who traveled enjoyed their trips away from home, most found themselves very glad to arrive back home, where they could lay back on the beach and relax.

Hello School!

Registration on September 3, 4, 5 and 6 made the end of summer a dreaded reality for most students. Filling out all the necessary forms at home was only the beginning. Once the students arrived on campus, he or she realized there was more paperwork to be done

Some students were annoyed with the fact that they had to miss a day away from the beach just for registration. For other students, registration was an exciting day for class-mates to reunite after three months of not seeing one another.

For Freshman Orientation, the Student Council planned an entire day of activities. "Our purpose for full day of registration and orientation was to break the fear and intimidation felt among the Freshmen!" exclaimed John Choi

The Freshmen enjoyed a complementary lunch while they listened to music provided by D J. (and student), Pat Delgato. At the end of the week of registration, nearly 98% of the Mustang Students were prepared, but maybe not ready, to begin school

Annual A-Fair!

The Hometown Fair has become a tradition for the students of Mira Costa. Every year the first weekend of October, Mira Costa students enjoy and take part in the Hometown Fair. The Annual run course added a new wrinkle by not going around the pier en route to the finishline. It kicked-off the fair at 7:30 A M. Saturday, October 5.

Students could be seen anywhere from relaxing to working hard in a booth. Nearly every club or organization posted a fund raising booth. Two of the most popular booths were the Interact Club booth which sold pizza, and the Key Club fish toss. The food was the favorite part for many people, but the games, and Arts and Crafts provided other entertainment. Brad Campbell reflected, "The combination of my friends, the food, and the fun games made it a great weekend." No matter what the best was, the Hometown Fair provided a fun-filled weekend for all and for originality, a 29! Good scores! It all started on a Saturday night when Clint Creado and John Bragg were watching a late show of Puttin! On The Hits. They were inspired to form a group and lip sync Billy Joel's hit song "The Longest Time." After recruiting the well known Mira Costa twins. Kevin and Keith Scoggins, the group was complete.

Two weeks of practice had gone by and it was the Friday before the weekend tryouts, which were to be held at Magic Mountain. Kevin after said, "I'll never forget staying up until 1-30 that night touching up our act, especially when we had to be up the next morning at 5-30." Their act consisted of John lip syncing Billy Joel, while the trio of Kevin, Keith, and Clint sang back up

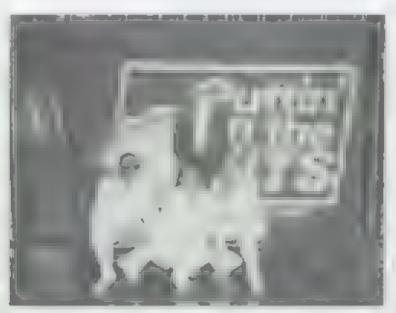

Dressed in their toxedos, they set off the next morning in the pouring rain "The drive was long, and the weather was stormy, but the outcome made it all worth white," stated Clint Creado. After walking through the park to get to the theatre, they were only one of 48 drenched groups, nervous, but ready to perform. Keith said, "the competition was stiff, and it looked like a slim chance of us making finals." Sure enough, they were one of fifteen finalists who did.

Finals were held the next day at Magic Mountain. 'It was guite an experience on Sunday, because it was open to the public, and Alien Fawcett was the host," John commented. 'It was like the real show with channel 5 filming it'.

The show lasted an hour, and when the top three winners were announced, "The Longest Time" had taken first place. It was a dream come true for these four guys

The weekends serve different purposes for different students at Mira Costa. For many it is a chance to spend time

When walking through the halfs at Mira Costa on any given—with friends or relatives and have a good time. As for trips, students go anywhere from the local ski slopes, to the sunny desert of Palm Springs. For others, however, the weekend is spent working to earn extra money, or studying to finish up last minute essays. Halloween Fun

Every year, late in October when the full moon starts to. There was a variety of costumes at this year's dance. The rise. Mira Costa students start to exhibit strange behavior Parents and teachers know that Halloween is just around the corner. Along with Halloween comes the annual Halloween Dance. This year's dance took place on October 26 in Fisher Gym. "It was one of the funnest dances all year," stated Senior John Dougher The DJ's Dan Lococco and Robert Harris played the student's favorite tunes and everybody boogled down most popular were doctors, devils, Hawaiians, firemen, and bowlers. As always, there was a contest to see who had the best costume. Coming in first place were the Rastatarians. and in second was Kelly Fajack dressed as a burn victim

A Day For Clubs

"Club Day encouraged people to get involved that wouldn't normally get involved in clubs," stated Bill Winn, ASB Vice-President, Club Day took place on September 27 and many clubs were involved. It was changed from a week, as in previous years, to one day of activities. This made it just for sign-ups and fundraising rather than games and activities. The clubs that were involved either sold food or conducted sign-ups. The following clubs took part in the activities Girls' League, Interact, cycling club, Key club, S-club, and Thespians. The food ranged from pizza to popcorn

Mira Costa students generally ate a lot of food and had a good time. Also, the various clubs made a lot of money and recruited many members. The focus of Club Day was mainly pointed at the Freshmen and Sophomores that didn't know about clubs or how to get in them. Club Day helped them and all of the other students find out what clubs there were and the purpose of each club. Bill Winn, organizer of the day's proceedings, thought that the day went really well and he believes it will remain a success in future years.

A Challenging Job

Have you ever wondered what a day in the life of a Grounds Supervisor is like? If so, read on A Grounds Supervisor, or more commonly called "nard" has a very important job on the campus: keeping it clean, drugwise of course. Often times we overlook, or take their services for granted A Ground Supervisor's main job is to prevent drug trafficing and use Other duties they also perform are enforcement of school policies, detention, study hall, truancy sweeps, and keeping the campus peaceful

This year's ground supervisors are Phil Sandoval, Darrin Moore, Valerie Seale, and Pat Austin. They are a common sight during school when they walk through the halls checking for disturbances. There is always one of them stationed in the cafeteria and in the corral area during snack and lunch to control the occasionally unruly students. They are also occupied before and after school with administering detention. They definitely put in a long days work.

The ground supervisors also make many contributions to the school by supporting school spirit, attending school sporting events, and helping out administrators whenever their help is needed. Head Ground Supervisor Phil Sandoval's contributions go far beyond those expected in his job. He helps out with drill team, tall flags, and pep club. He also does all of the announcing at our home basketball and volleyball games. The people became ground supervisors because they enjoy working with and helping kids. They are a great asset to the well-being of our school.

High school years can be rough and unstable for some teenagers. The Mira Costa Drama Department expanded on the problems that teens have in the fall play JUVIE. The play focuses on several troubled young people who are in a juvenile detention half. Throughout the play, each inmate tells his or her story on how he got there. The problems these teenagers have range from drugs to arson, runaway to murder.

Getting Involved

This year Brad Campbell and Tecia Barton went to Washing ton D.C. to attend a Congressional Leaders Conference for student council members. The trip was in November and it lasted for a week. Together they learned about how our national government works. They talked with many Congressmen and Senators satin on a Congressional session talked to Supreme Court austices, and did some historical sight seeing. Brad was even able to visit the library of congress. Together, they represented Mira Costa in an out standing way.

Styling

Calvin Klein, Guess, Quicksilver, Sergio Valente, C.O.D., or Levis? Many students chose between these brand names of clothes when they went shopping. The big question was 'What will I wear?'

Every year at Mira Costa, new fads and trends develop in the way students look and dress. This year was not tremendously different from last year but everyone had new clothes and a new look

The major trends this year came in Girls' clothes. The tight jeans and big shirt look was in. Often girls had the 'sweat-shirt around the waist' look. Also, the girls this year wore some flashy footwear. The Indian or studded boots were popular. In terms of hairstyles, girls wore their hair all differ-

Calvin Klein, Guess, Quicksilver, Sergio Valente, C.O.D., or ent. A lot of them though wore short hair with pronounced Levis? Many students chose between these brand names of bangs.

For guys it was the casual look. Instead of wearing 'flashy clothes, the guys of Mira Costa went back to functional clothes. Most guys were into the beach look. The names that were hot for guy's clothes were Quicksilver, Billabong, and Gotcha. An exception to this dress style was offered by many Freshmen and Sophomores. Some of them were into the dance wear. For guy's hairstyles it was basically short with Mousse as a daily additive.

Overall, everyone dressed their own way and had a good time doing it

Co-Achievers

The honor of Student of the Year is the highest award that may be bestowed on a student. The acknowledgement is especially meaningful because the recipient is chosen by faculty members and peers alike. The nine nominees for 1986 student of the year were Tecia Barton, Brad Campbell, Andy Dellenbach, Bobbie Fujihara, Heather Marshall, Melissa McNally, Molly Roe, Bill Winn, and John Dougher. The 1985-86 students of the year are both Tecia Barton and Brad Campbell.

Throughout Tecia's four years at Mira Costa she has been involved in student government. She was elected sophomore class president and awarded the 1984 Outstanding Service in Leadership Award. She was also the Student Representative to the South Bay Union High School District and on the Superintendant Advisory 1985 Committee. In 1985 Tecia was awarded Outstanding Youth Citizen by the city of Manhattan Beach.

Brad, too, has been involved in student government throughout his four years. Brad was ASB President, Jr. class President and Freshman Vice-President. Brad is a Mira Costa representative at the Rotary, Kiwanis and other coordinating councils. Brad is also an outstanding achiever in academics, having achieved the status of CSF Sealberer.

Ever since Center Jr. High, Tecia and Brad have been competing with each other. Their student government careers at Mira Costa were similar too. Both Tecia and Brad attended the Congressional Youth Conference in Washington D.C. Both were members of Physiology and Service Clubs (Key Club and "S" Club). Tecia was a participant in J.V. volleyball and varsity soccer while Brad was a member of the J.V. cross country team and varsity tennis team. Finally both Tecia and Brad were members of the WASC Student Accredition Team. Tecia and Brad have been competing for many years, but this time, instead of one or the other losing, they both WON'

"Mustangs Of All Ages"

Following a great week of festivities, the magical moment had arrived. At the half time of an intense football game against Royal High School, all ears focused on the announcer as the lights dimmed. He introduced the Homecoming court as they were driven to the front of the field in 1957 T-BIRDS. The announcer stated all of the involvement in school by each girl, from over the past four years. The procession started off with returning queens, Holly Henderson (84), and Nicole Abinatti (83). Followed by the court Molly Roe, Mellisa McNally, Tecia Barton, Jill Konduros, Bobbie Fujihara, Kristin Heob, and Kim Day. After they all took their places on the field, we all enjoyed a spectacular fire work show. Suddenly from nowhere the name of the

World Review

The years 1985-1986 saw a great number of events. These events, both big and small, affected the nation greatly Although this year was very important, it was just another year in American history. Mira Costa students kept in touch with the events and saw the world changing.

One important happening this year was the meeting of President Reagan with Soviet leader Gorbachev in Geneva Although the talks did not solve any of the problems between the countries, it showed people of the world that at least the two nations could still have peaceful relations. The Soviets primarily feared Reagan's Star Wars Program (SDI), while the United States tried to regain an edge in nuclear affairs. Also, the United States saw much space activity The space shuttle logged many space hours and launched satellites, while Voyager took pictures of Uranus

The music industry also made important advances this year. Band-Aid, USA for Africa, and United Artists Against

Apartheid were three groups who used music to solve world problems. World scale concerts such as Live-Aid and Farm-Aid were also held to benefit the less fortunate

On a domestic level, Mira Costa students as well as the rest of America saw many incidents. They saw the return of Halley's comet. Also, in sports the nation watched the Chicago Bears pounce the New England Patriots 46-10 in the Superbowl In addition, Tom Curren and Mark Occhilupo dominated the ASP surfing tour this year

To bring a sad note to the world's happenings, there were a few sad deaths this year. People of the world saw the tragic death of singer Rick Nelson and actor Rock Hudson. Rock died of the deadly AIDS disease which has spread fear across America Lastly, people of the world had to witness the politically insane actions of Lieutenant Kadali which could lead Libya to war with the United States

Ronald Reagan, in a press conference, talks about the recent Summit talks in Geneva

A Syncing Success

The winter lip sync contest was a very popular event at Mira Costa. It was organized by Commissioner of Campus Morale John Bragg, who spent many hours to make it a great success. There were 16 overall entries, and 7 groups made it to the finals, which were held during an extended lunch. The judges for the finals were all faculty members. They were Dr. Marshall, Ms. Fredricks, Ms. Galvin, Mr. Ruderman, Mr. Lang Mr. Klein, and Ms. Klein. There was a DJ who played all of the songs, and the grand prize was $100.

The top performances were by The Village People who placed third, Omar Moreno as Paul Young who placed second, and Aretha Franklin who placed first. The other four groups that made it to the finals were Dire Straits, Vanity, Motley Crue, and Cindy Lauper

The freshmen football team has gotten off to a good start towards their future as Mustang football players. With a coaching staff led by six year head coach Richard Egan, the players were provided with an excellent learning environment. Through hard work and determination, this team should fare well in the years to come

Evaluate By Effort

The varsity football team had a rebuilding year this season. They finished with a disappointing 1-8-1 record with their only win and tie in non-league play. The ream lacked numbers to compete in the tough Bay league, averaging about 25 players suiting up for a game. Several times during the season, the team didn't dven have enough players to have a full scrimmage during practice. Nonetheless, the team did play in many close games.

The standout players were Dan Donnely it linebacker, Gerry Zwierlein on the offensive line, and Jim Regan at safety and in the offensive backfield.

Hopefully, the Mustangs have benefitted from this season and will be strong next tall when they return to the Ocean tangue after a four year absence

A Trying Season

This year's varsity team was a young one, but they fared out well. They began training in the summer and kept up their rigorous workouts up until League Finals. Boys varsity led by Jason Swanson, Kevin Baker, and Billy Harvey finished sixth in League Finals. The girls varsity ted by Adriene Ling, Eunah Kim, and Carline Plier also displayed excellent performances. These girls not only ran well but also gave the team spirit, with Kendis Moffett receiving the 'Meg Warner' award. The girls finished fourth in League Finals.

Both these teams are expected to do very well next year. With many of the strong runners returning, Mira Costa can only expect to be a strong contender in next years fight for number one.

State Champs!

Once again Mira Costa's girls varsity volleyball team has come out on top. The team not only had an outstanding year, but an undefeated one. After having an unparallelled CIF season, the Mustangs went on to destroy their opponents in the state championships. Volleyball Monthly ranked the Mustangs number one in the nation.

Since the team had such an excellent record, many people felt that the 85-86 team might have been the best ever. The players teel that their secret was that they have been playing together as a team torever. The starting lineup of setters Lindsey Hahn and Holly McPeak and hitters, Jill Horning, Melissa McNahly, Lisa Arce and Megan McCalister proved to be an unstoppable team

The junior varsity also had an outstanding year. With a winning streak throughout league competition, many of the J.V. players are hoping for varsity spots next year. Vanessa Salem went on to say that "the team had no real starting lineup because everyone was equal". Vanessa also said that it was not bad to be in the varsity shadow because it was fun "to support them in their winning streak."

The varsity team was led by Bryant. Karpowich, and Barton Many goals were saved by Siegel This year was a rebuilding year, with many new players. The players, however, were improving towards the end of the season, with a 2-1 win over Redondo Coach He hies said "Next year should be a great ord."

As for the junior varsity, the new coach, Dorn Buck, had a well motivated team. The JV team was led by Compton, Golob and Miller. The team played well together, and they showed the depth needed to be successful. With the talent on this JV team, Mira Costa will be a power to reckon with in the future.

Setting A Goal

The boys varsity soccer team got off to a wonderful start. They were ranked tenth in CIF going into league. The team had great preseason play, as well as a tough Las Vegas tournament in which John Dougher was named the MVP.

The team was physically divided between junior and seniors, except one sophomore, Sean Leib. At the beginning of league play, the Mustangs had a rough time. With high hopes, Frank Stepzeck explained "We have an excellent team and we will make CIF."

Building For The Future

The girls tennis team, roached by Jim Wenger, has improved over last year, winning two non-league matches early in the season. Their record proves their tough Bay League schedule including top Palos Verdes and Rolling Hills. Inexperience was an obstacle for 1985, but with most of the team returning next year, the outlook for a better season is favorable.

Varsity was led by the number one doubles team, Justine McAlpine and Linda Newcomb Sentor faura fa late also payors a dominant rile as the number one singles player. Kim Day, the only other returning senior, inspired her teammates as the team captain. In addition Sophomore Kristen Eastom at ided needed depth to the varsity team.

Stronger Everyday

Growing stronger and more competitive are the key terms in describing this year's JV team Coached by Mr Moreno, the team improved more and more everyday. Key players to watch out for лехt year's varsity are Scotti, Brown, Lucero, Herman, and Ellis Chris Brown displayed excellent ball handling and was a great asset to the team Lucero and Scotti also helped to make the J.V. team a winning one. Although this was a rebuilding year, the team proved itself successful especially with their major victory against Redondo Coach Moreno concluded "The players have improved dramatically and exhibited a tremendous amount of hard work and self discipline Because of youth and inexperience we have struggled in the beginning of the season. But we have now found a winning combination and look forward to a successful league competition."

Teamwork Brings Success

Togetherness is an important asset for a basketball team to have This year's sophomore team have been playing together for two years now and it shows. Coached by Tony McDermott, the team works well together, although the team suffered a loss of players due to sickness and injury. Coach McDermott said "When we had at of our players we were tough. I'm certain at least 6 guys will be on varsity next year." Leading the game were starters Charlie Griswald, Mike Mueller, Eric Strausser, Kevin Hoose, and Kevin Scoggins The team mixed good defense, teamwork desire to win and a natural love of the game to become a skillful team with potential to make up next year's J V and varsity.

Future Stars

The 1985-86 Junior Varsity volteyball team has been of to a fibulous start consisting flex altent varsity prospects, the team is very likely to win their division. To some this may seem a strong statement, but if this year's team is as good as in the past, it will come true

With impressive physics such as Tom Persiin, setter, John Grant, outside hitter, and Cody Cowell, middle blocker, next year's future looks bright. Also on this year's schedule is a frosh-soph, team. After doing away with the "varsity reserve" squad, there is more room for building good players. This team also alds to the future varily players.

Spikers Do It Again

With five returning varsity players the mustang squad looks promising. Many think this year's team will follow in the footsteps of the 1984 varsity team and dominate their division. "It all depends on our mental toughness", Peter Gentry explained. The mustangs were ranked sixth in C I F pre-season. "We are extremly strong if we can just pull together," stated captain, Ed Church

After many years of playing together the team has developed the skill needed to go all the way. The starting lineup consists of many outstanding players. The starting setters are seniors, Andy Dellenbach and Alex Bacon. While the rest of the team is made up of Bill Ortigieson, Eddie Church, Cary. Nies, and Eric Fonoimoana. With Mike Cook as coach the team will have to try hard to not become winners.

A Swinging Season

The 1985-86 Junior Varsity Boy's baseball team was coached by a Mira Costa newcomer, Steve Abrams, an experienced player and coach, lead many vigorous practices that paid off on the late of the late

Some players to look for next season are Steve Jund, Bill Harvey, Bill Graw and Rob Norman

Mustangs Bring 'Em Home

The 1985 86 Mustang Varsity baseball team got off to a good start this season only to have several of their early wins taken away by a CIF eligibility ruling, but was able to work its way back into action. With many competitive opponents, the team had a very tough schedule.

Under the coaching of Mike Fisher, a Mira Costa graduate, the team had a great offensive year. "We had a very young, well-rounded team with a very promising future," stated coach Fisher

Some players that aided the team the most this season were Erik Shanks, Steve Jund. Lance Honea, and Dan Donnelley

This year's Mira Costa Varsity Softball team, coached by Judy Jakemer hit their way up to an excellent year. The team was successful in their sportsmanship in dividual playing ability their contributions to the total team effort and their sincere commitment to the sport itself.

Strengths in the team include a strong infield including Judy Webb and Caryn Zott. Jennifer Grover and Francine Carter provide the speed on the field. Excellent pitching abilities by Julie Interasky and Sandra Marbut. Strong nitters in clude. Wendy. Roberts, and. Doe Toombs.

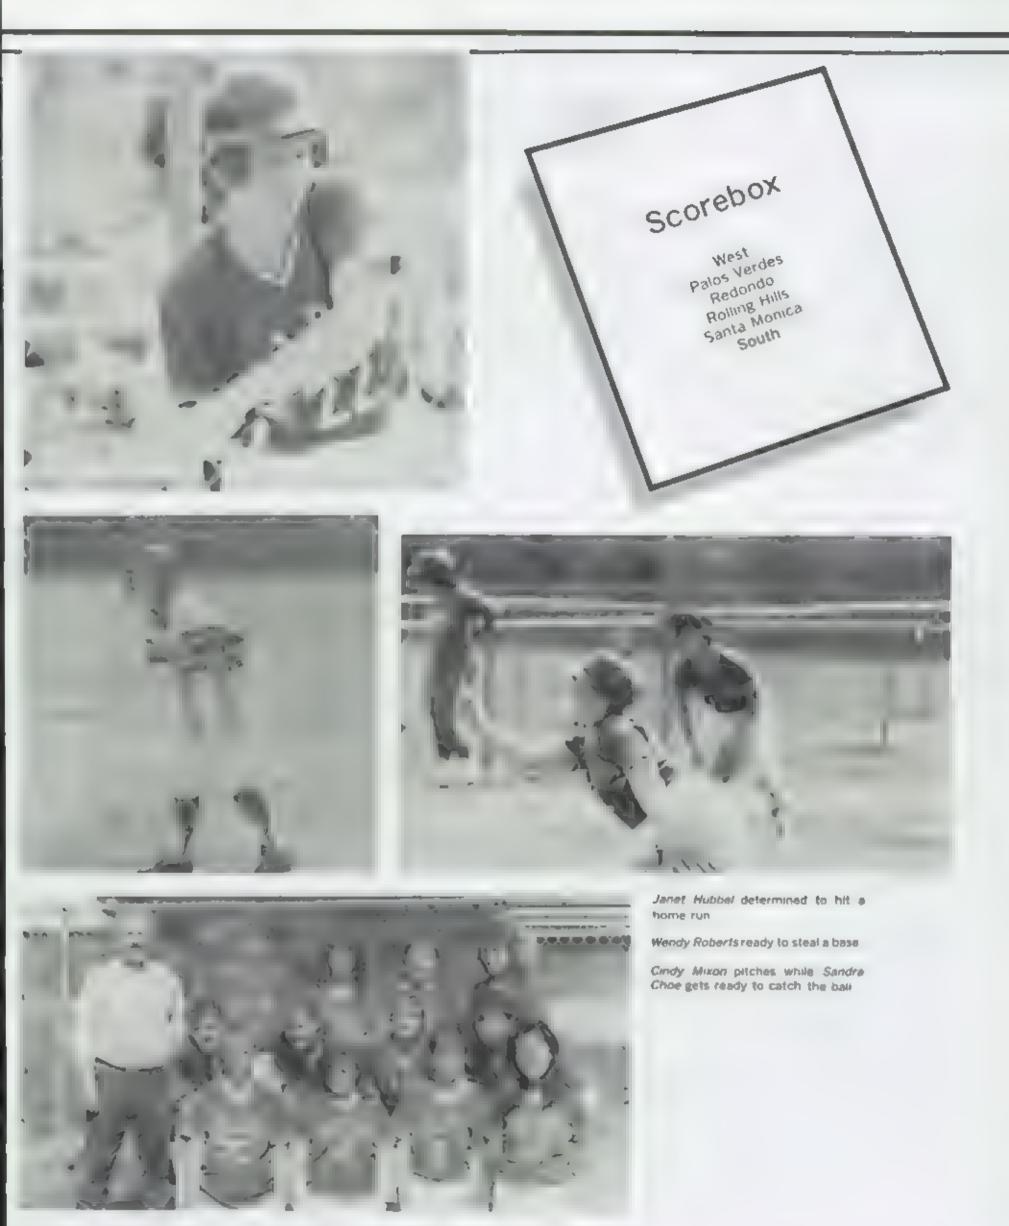

The Jr. Varsity team was a young one but very sound. The team had enthusiasm excellent sportsmanship and competitive skills. These fine qualities are partly due to the excellent coaching by Pierre Law zan Starlpitcher Cind Mixon committed by saying little signal and he knows a of Starlpityers to watch for next year include circly Mixon Caratyn Moesut er Sandra Chae and Janet Hubbe

The field events of this year's track team were an added strength to the team. The outstanding varsity athletes were Krissie Lovold, Amy Siegel, Brian Hobbs, and Kurt Hohman in the long jump, Amy Rico and Paul Racitain in the high jump. Cliff Schweitzer in the pole vault, and Scott Sellars in the shot put Improvements to the pits and runways for the field events added to the success of the team. The pole vin ters and light imper and revived new pits been present the shot putting ring was refinished. These improvements aided the performances of most of the athletes involved.

Distance Excels

This year's track team was a competive one especially for distance. The distance events include the 2-mile. 1-mile and the 880. To run these races one needs both endurance and speed. The Mira Costa distance team had both. Coach Holland once again gave rigorous workouts, fine coaching, and helpful advise to make the team a winning one. Coach Holland commented by saying "I'm pleased with this year's progress and I enjoy coaching them."

Phil Anderson. Tony Hill and Joe Cattivera lead the 880 and Kevin Baker, Scott Sandus and Peter Tilikan ead the 1 m e to victory lason Swanson and Mike Danddur and conquered the rigorous 2-mile

The girls also ran exceptionally Adriene Ling, Caroline Plier and Amy Melman lead the mile, while Kendis Moffett and Euh Ah Kim numbered one and two in the 880 Carolyn Miller and Andrea Dean also showed excellent running abilities in their two-mile races. Overall the distance team ran well and with the continual progress next year's team will be great!

English is taught at M.C. as being both a form of communication and an art. Infour years students are exposed to mythology, grammar, sentence structure, English, American and Modern Liferature. The instructors in the English department work to produce individuals functionally literate in today's society They concentrate their faculties to produce students who can express themselves in speech as well as writing "The department is enhanced by the expertise of the teachers and their willingness to experience with new ideas and strategies," states department chairman Jerry Klein. Truly the expertise and professionalism of the English staff has taught successfully many Mustangs the art of reading, writing, speaking and listening

Solving The Challenge

Let X=Y where Z is a cosine wave tangent to the greatest point in space. Find nt.

WHAT??? That is the reaction of a lot of students when first introduced to a new mathematical concept. Of course, the problem above is totally ridiculous and would never be given by a Mira Costa teacher to make your life miserable Rather, these teachers are dedicated to helping you understand these concepts and enable you to use them later in life

Mira Costa offers different levels of math for every type of student. General math, geometry, algebra, trigonometry, and calculus are discussed and worked out every day. Everyone has their preferences, however, including Mr. Temmins, who likes geometry because "it stresses logical reasoning more so than other math subjects."

The teachers have a great enthusiasm for the students of Costa. Mrs. Stone believes that "the students can achieve any goals they desire." One such student of Mr. Smith's (who, incidentally, just spent his 31st year in Room 38) just reached a great goal this year. Principal Gary Hartzell.

The Social Studies department at M C tries to instill in its students the concept that history must be applied to the world of today. Understanding the past will help us plan for the future. Fringe Benefits

Foreign language is a subject taken by many students not just to fulfill the school's requirements, but also their own requirements for the future. Many like to take French or Spanish at Mira Costa and later use the knowledge for traveling, their job, or just for the satisfaction of knowing a second language.

French and Spanish here are not just verb conjugations and vocabulary. Students engage in oral discussions and learn about the country's culture. They also have many fun activities related to the language. In October, over 200 Spanish students went to the Mayan exhibit at the Natural Museum of History Many classes go to a French or Mexican restaurant for lunch as an extra treat. There are many fringe benefits to be had from just fulfilling a language requirement.

Microscopes, ripple tanks, stroboscopes, beakers, slides, scapels, frogs, cats. All these are the tools of the science student. At Mira Costa, they can take biology, physiology, physics, oceanography, AP biology, science survey, and chemistry. Many plan to have a career in the sciences and like to take as many related courses as possible. Not only are they getting a head start in their careers, but if they also pass the Ad vanced Placement biology test with a 3-4, or 5, they may be able to skip a biology course in college.

The science faculty ably prepares their students for college and life Mr Brissey compares teaching to "the planting of seeds Seeds for the future Ideas, concepts and ideals are presented day after day like the watering and the warmth of the sun proding life into seeds."

Leadership is a talent that must be fostered through practice and implementation. The primary goal of the Marine Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps is to teach leadership through these methods From teaching a class on the necessity of capitalism to leading a platoon in drift, the MCJROTC truly builds effective leaders

This year the ranking cadet officers were Major Mark Eyre. Captain Drew Cukor, Captain John Parades. Captain Jeff Allen and 2nd Lt. Kevin Averill. Through their examples of leadership in Action they taught Junior cadets military discipline and Marine Corps heritage. Their example proved a motivating and inspirational uplift to all the cadets.

This year the MCJROTC went to Quantico Va. There cadets learned what it takes to be a Marine Officer and how the defense department works.

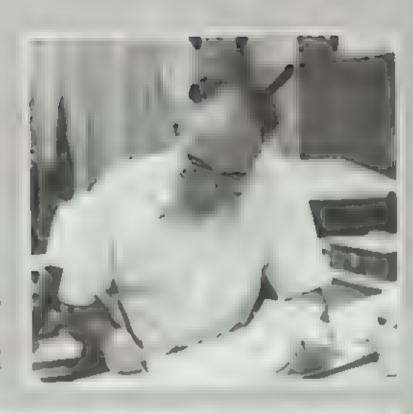

The MCJROTC is looking for a few good cadets. If anyone is interested contact Lt. Col. Shuman or MGySgt. Roth. They teach leadership fitness and integrity and guarantee to turn you into a productive and active citizen.

Fun And Fitness

Physical education is a subject that is enjoyed by many people here at Mira Costa. It leaves at least one period a day in which a student can take a break from his/her studies and just relax while playing sports with friends. All sophomore and upperclassmen sports are co-ed and they also have the option of choosing what sports to play from those offered. These include tennis, volleyball, soccer aerobics, softball, swimming, basketball, track, and weight training.

The P.E. staff headed by Ms. Alexander for girls and Mr. Egan for boys, is dedicated to getting the student body in shape. Ms. Aldrich enjoys teaching physical education (especially volleyball) because "The students and parents are fully aware of the need of physical activity to enhance a healthy body for life."

"The main emphasis in Special Education is to assist students with academic problems to meet graduation requirements," states Department Chairman Ren Biesel With over 100 students working on individual programs the department works on producing students who can work and live productively in the community. In one program the state pays the employer to hire the student. The student receives payment for his work and at the same time is placed in a good job where his experience and ability will make him a more productive student. A New Beginning

Since the beginnings of Mira Costa in the early 1950's Mustangs have been fortunate to have an excellent Administrative staff to support and motivate them. These early Mustangs not only achieved in life but brought a name and an image to future students of Mira Costa.

As in the past Mira Costa has once again been fortuitous in gaining two new administrators, principal Gary Hartzell and Vice Principal Gerald Striff Through their efforts this year Mira Costa has seen many changes. Ranging from a revitilization program that included rebuilding many physical facilities to a student of the month program that recognized excellent students.

Quite possibly this year could turn out to be a beliwhether or sorts. With the new leadership of Gary Hartzell and Gerald Striff along with Linda Frederick, James Muetil, and Joan Risse, Mira Costa can only attain excellence in years to come

This year is indeed a new beginning and Mustangs of the past and future generations will always remember it.

Guiding Students Toward The Future

The counselors of Mira Costa not only place students in the proper classes and make sure that they have enough credits to graduate but they also help students beyond high school. As Karin Anderson commented, 'they helped me to plan my future and make the best possible career choice." Students go to them for advice on work experience, colleges, which courses to take, and to obtain letters of recommendation

The counseling staff, headed by Joan Risse, also an administrator, had only one major change from last year. Mrs. Gorey replaced Mrs. Reed while she is on sabbatical leave. Otherwise, things were pretty much the same as counsel. ors had to work hard at talking to scores of students, teachers, and parents, trying to satisfy everyone. Mr Brigham commented how everyone wants to. and needs to, be treated individually, yet the counselors have to think about the whole school. He says, "If we tried to please everybody, we would not be able to please anybody. Hey, maybe we don't anyway But we try We really do."

Or Marshall tooks for schourship information for a student

School

The dedicated food operations staff continued to feed the Mira Costa student body this year. Before first period, they are serving cinnamon rolls, bagels, hot chocolate, egg muffins, and other breakfast goodies. At snack, there is a wider variety. Potato chips, sodas, pretzels, and sandwiches are included. By the time lunch comes around, the hungry student body is clamoring in line for delicious fries, not to mention pizzas, burritos, tacos, and the ever popular salad.

Experiencing Life Abroad

It was July 29, 1985 and there were 36 Mira Costa students excited and anxious. This year's travellers along with Mr Meuhland Mr. Fredricks fled the United States and headed for Heidelberg, Germany. Following a long flight, the group, filled with enthusiasm eagerly began their trip. This year's itinerary went from Heidelberg to Munich to Wolfenscheisen. Switzerland Followed by Florence, Rome and Rapallo, Italy. Then to Nice, Lyon and Paris, France and their final destination, London, England

The group visited many museums and historical sites. These ranged from Dachau, one of Germany's concentration camps to Michelangelos statue of David in Italy. The overall favorite city was Munich. They enjoyed the atmosphere and the people. As Jenny Brandes said, "The weather, shopping and entertainment was the best in Munich

As the trip slowly came to an end, many became ready to return home. As Sydney Graham said, "I miss Mexican food and the beach."

Acheiving Excellence

to mention getting good enough grades to be in CSF

The California Scholarship Federation requires a total of 10 points when grades are added together. With this system each student needs at least three "A's" and one "B". If a student has met the requirements for four of his last six semesters, he receives the honor of being a Sealbearer

Many Mira Costa students find it difficult to keep a float, not. This year the sponsors for CSF were Mr. Muehl, Mrs. Nelson, Mr. Hartzel, and Miss Risse.

Achieving Perfection

Many of Mira Costa's students do something beyond their regular classes. These students are mostly in college bound classes and many of the other clubs on campus.

Physiology Club is one of the most prominent clubs on campus. The members of this club are interested in careers in the field of science. There are multiple trips to UCLA Medical Center, where students go through the hospital and listen to lectures on different types of medical fields. Mrs. Estill is the sponsor of the club once again this year. The club's Co-Presidents are Tecia Barton and Joe Zinc.

The Math Team is another club that is interested in academics. Although most Mira Costa students don't like to take tests, these few must. The Mathaletes take a series of tests throughout the year. Some of these are taken at school and mailed to a test center, while others are taken at other schools. Both Mr. Temmins and Mr. Sillvius oversee the Math Team. This year the captain is Mark Hilton.

French Club is also an academic club here at Mira Costa. The requirement for this club is to be taking a French class. The participants of this club do many different activities, all in French! They have had parties where all people going bring a French dish. The French Club also went to many French Movies and plays. This helped all of them with their studies. Mrs. Cameron was the sponsor of the club and Ted Alexandre the president.

Fun Clubs

There are several extra-curricular "fun clubs" at Mira Costa These clubs include Squid club, guitar club, cycling club, and New Life Club

The Society for Quality Understanding of Imaginary Dimensions (S.Q.U.I.D. Club) is led in part by Dr. Green along with four "elders." The elders are Scott Kruer, Marc Levy, Scott Ludwig, and Doug McCarthy. Squid club is a science fiction fantasy club, and meetings are held every Tuesday at lunch The club's main purpose is to partake in role playing and Logan games.

The guitar club this year was centered around developing and improving the members' already excellent musical skills. Mr Miller, the club's sponsor, led this group of highly talented individuals to a wonderfully prosperous, and all out groovin' year.

The New Life Club is made up of twenty-five members this year. Their sponsor was Miss Reimer. As president. Ellen Bauer and other members discussed current world problems from the Bible's prospective. The cycling club was headed by president Tamara Browne

Costa Clubs

This year's Spirit Club with President John Bragg, worked hard in promoting our school spirit. John Bragg, who also held the A.S.B. office of Commissioner of Campus Morale spent many hours organizing to sell items such as terrible towels, Pom Poms and balloons at many of our games.

Thespian's, the drama club at Mira Costa, was more active than many past years. They held many candy sales and participated in the Penguins' People night raising money for scholarships. During December the club held a noon time theater which took place in the drama room. With President. Jill Kondurous, Vice President, John Bragg, Secretary. Shana Thomas, Treasurer, Shelley Peoples and Historian, Lara Uskovich, this year's club was one of the best.

One of Mira Costa's most creative groups is the Water Ballet Troup. This group spent numerous hours of rehearsal for their annual show in January. With the excellent sponsorship and coaching of Mrs. Lynn Stone their performance was a success. Christy Rahn and Shana Sinay, the clubs copresidents spent many hours working with the class to make this year's show the envy of all past years.

Dancing Towards Perfection

In September, Mira Costa's Dance Club students were introduced to their new instructor, Mrs. Aleta Pottenger. Their new teacher brought energy and charisma to this years troop. The class participated in many activities which included candy, bake and calendar sales, they also were invovied with the community night at the local Penguins Frozen Yorgurt shop. These proceeds went toward the annual Spring Concert. This years concert took place in late April. With Mrs Pottenger and Artistic Director, Min Kim this year's concert was the finest in years

As a club the students were involved in numerous activities. They held a progressive dinner as well as many gift exchanges. These brought the students closer to each other, which made working as a class a success. With executive board Alene Janowicz, Min Kin, Leah Cordiano and Rachel Stevenson this years club was most productive.

'S' Club Serves You

There are many people in the South Bay area who are in need of some kind of help. The Mira Costa "S" club is an organization that strives to help these needy people by giving its time and effort in order to lessen some of their unfortunate problems

The club was involved with various school functions, such as Baccalaureate, and Teacher luncheons. The members worked at registration and delivered La Vistas in the summer to community homes

As for community service, the girls and Mrs. Taloya, their sponsor, visited Huntington and Bayshores convalescent homes and worked for childrens' carnivals for Manhattan

Beach Recreation Department

This year's Hometown Fair fund raiser was organized by senior representatives Michelle Levielle and Cindy Greenberg. They sold fruit drinks and had a button and balloon booth. During school, the club organized Santa Grams and Flower Grams

Another project President Bobbie Fujihara was involved with, was supporting a child in the Philippines and a family at Christmas. Bobbie said, "Helping people gives me a good feeling, and I know that we are doing something useful for the community

A Key To Success

There are many service clubs at Mira Costa, but one stands them and have fun." A profitable fund raiser for the club out from all others. Key Club is a group of select males who devote their time and effort toward community and school services. This year's Key Club has certainly upheld their tradition of good service. They were sponsored by Kiwanis Club, and held their meetings every Thursday night. President Carlos Villalobos said, "Key Club is great, because it gives guys with similar dreams a chance to work toward

Willing, Able And Working

What exactly is interact club? It is an organization to provide service to anyone or group. This group doesn't limit itself. They participate in many community, school and volunteer programs. These range from beach cleaning to decorating the gym for Friday dances. As Dani Byrd quoted "I enjoy Interact because we are willing to help anyone who wants us to."

With sponsor Mr. Randy Brisse and executive board Meaghan

Mansfield, Liz Wos and Nancy Rossenburger the group accomplished more than they had even hoped to. With their large profit from the pizza sale at the fair they were able to donate money to the local 1736 house and the new Mira Costa marquis. They also volunteered many hours at Richstone helping the young abused children. With all the energy with in this group they succeeded in every job they took on

Working For The Best

As September approached Girls League members began to work on December's Happiness Ball. They were disappointed because of not being able to rent a dance hall due to high costs. Girls League then formed the gymnasium into some thing it has never been. The members worked very hard to form the gym into an elegant dance hall. As a result of their time and effort the Happiness Ball was a tremendous success.

With their sponsor Ms. Denise Parker and executive board members Kristin Heab, Kim Day, Alene Janowicz, Tecia Barton, and Min Kim. Girls League accomplished many projects These include organizing the collectors for the classrooms and decorating the attendance hall during Operation Happiness Girls League also participated in the community night at the local Penguins frozen yogurt shop

Making It Happen

A great asset to our school is the Student Council or known to others as the ASB. Without this group of hard working and devoted students, we would not have all of the activities and leadership that we have in our school government. The Student Council works for the entire student body. They provide activities, and have many fund raisers to aide the school ASB sponsors many events, such as after game dances, assemblies, homecoming, communications week.

and many other things

This year the Student Council was led by Brad Campbell, ASB President, and by Ms Parker, and Doug Newfeld They all did an excellent job making this year entertaining and fun for everyone. As Brad Campbell summed it up, "It's a tough job, and I'm the right man to do it!"

New Ideas

"A New Generation" that was the theme chosen for this years wardt worked together in planning this year's annual. In preparing for this task Editor Berry Foster attended a week long camp this summer. At camp he learned how to use the new Apple computer. This computer enables the staff to save time and effort. With this new convenience the staff is now able to spend more time on the actual creating of the layout rather than the typing and printing of it

Another new addition to the staff is the size. Compared to the Hoofprints. Editor Berry Foster with assistant Mary Marck- last years 20 member, this year has 26 staffers. Of these, 4 are photographers. The head photographer Meaghan Mansfield is in charge of all pictures that are used in Hoofprints There are also 5 section editors who are responsible for their layouts before they reach the editor. With all these new ideas in the Hoofprints staff "A New Generation" turned into a great

A New Kind Of Spirit

This year the Pep Club is a little different. There is just one Varsity squad and no JV squad. In spite of this the squad has just as much spirit. This year there were no returning members, but that did not stop the girls from being full of spirit

The cheerleaders did some new things during the year. They performed at one of the many halftime shows with the band At this game they gave a great performance. The team also did a parade. They marched along with the Band arousing spirit in the crowd.

The team was under the leadership of Captain Pam Graham and Co-Captain Sherry Padilla

This year the squad went to camp in Santa Barbara. They won many awards for spirit. Along with utilizing fourth period there were also after school practices.

Again the school had the silly antics of Melvin the Mustang Michelle Leveille did a great job!

BANG!! Second quarter of the football game has ended and halftime starts. The crowd anticipates the precise music and formations they are about to see

A new generation has reached to the 1985-86 Marching Band This year the Band is under the new direction of Mr. David Hayami. The new director has gotten the Band back into full working order. He has made many improvements, which include buying new uniforms for the Band members

As well as coming to school at 7:00 a m. the Band had Thursday night practices before a home game. Along with Band, both Tall Flags and Drill Team attended these practices. The practices made every Friday night performance unique

Leading the Band during games and parades is Drum Major Mark Nylund

This year the Band has performed in many parades. Its members have received numerous high honors

What Time Is It?!

It's time for the 1985-86 Tall Flag team

If you hadn't noticed, the team is a little different this year. For one thing the team has doubted in size. You have probably seen them around campus on Fridays. With so many members they are seen everywhere! Another new thing about the Tall Flags is their new sequin uniforms. During the football game halftime shows they have sparkled their way through the show

This year the team is led by Captain Barbara Lopez. Helping her are her Co-Asst. Captains, Wendy Harmon and D'Arcy Devincenzi

As well as performing the halftimes the Tall Flags also competed in parades and competitions. They got many high awards for their talent

Giving Blood Is For All Seasons

On December 2, Several Mira Costa Students Donated more than 109 pints of blood to the Red Cross. This year because of several health oriented problems, such as, AIDS (Acquired immune Deficiency Syndrome), Mononuliolous, and active tuberculosis, the National blood banks of the United States were in need of emergency volunteer blood donors.

In the past years, Mira Costa Students have given blood in the spring, but because of the desperate need of blood.

Mira Costa students were exceptionally willing to give their blood months earlier than intended

Under the organization of the Red Cross, and several students, the winter blood drive was a great success. Although Mira Costa did not break the school record, the 109 plus pints broke the record of Redondo Union, our rival school Because the Spring blood drive is still scheduled, the blood raised then, with the blood raised already should break our school record.

Kathy Wible demonstrates bravery while needles stuck in her arms take tier blood

It Takes All Types -

Nancy Resemberg instructs to the stu-dents how to prepare blood serum to the volunteers medical history re-plates.

Condy Greenberg and another student to the volunteers medical history re-ports.

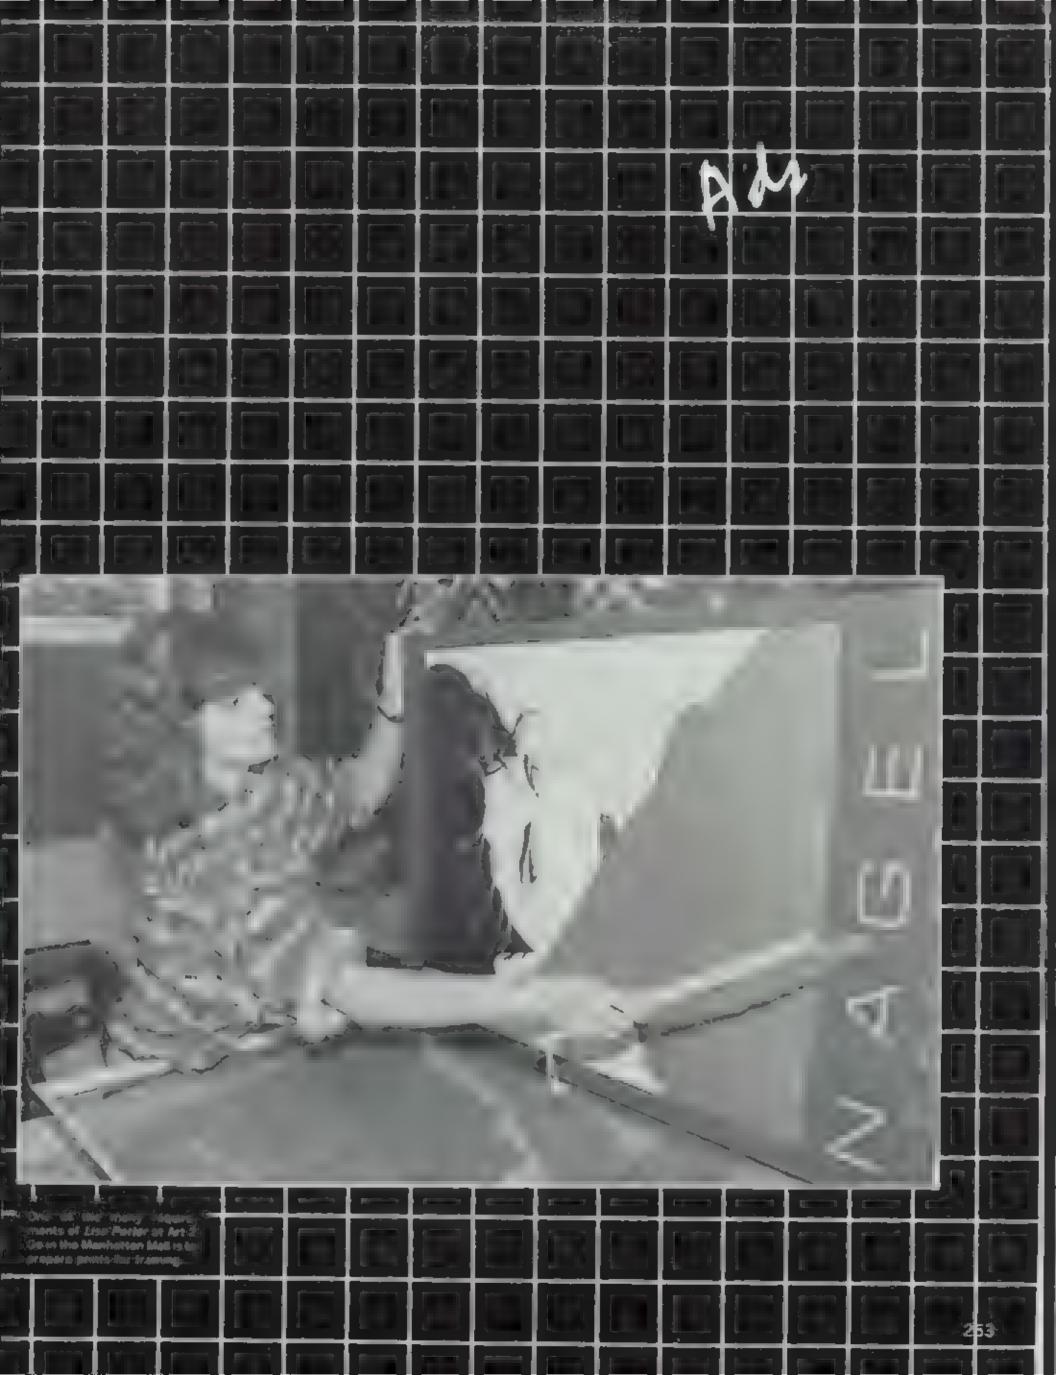

Get on the ball.

In Memory Of

Todd Beattie Keeland

1968-1985

On October 4, 1985, Mira Costa High School tragically lost one of its finer students. Todd Beattie Keeland will be remembered by his acquaintances and others as a fine student, athlete, and friend. He was a role model for us all, He was the kind of person who comes along once in a great while, and he will be surely missed.
